Our massages

- Māhara Relaxing
A gentle soothing massage to help balance the body and mind, relieve tension and promote well-being.
- Taurumi Authentic
Traditional massage using ancient polynesian techniques to work and loosen the muscles and release tension.
- Tahara'a Sports
A type of compression massage concentrating on reflex areas to reduce stress and tension, and to restore the natural flow of energy in the body.
- 'Ofe Detoxifying
A classic massage of long strokes to improve muscle tone, stimulate circulation and lymph flow, and relax the entire body.
- Hau' maru Relaxing & detoxifying
A relaxing massage involving the use of hands and forearms to bring relaxation to the muscles with long gliding strokes. Increases oxygen flow in the body and assists the body to rid itself of stored toxins and metabolic wastes.
